Revamped Online Banking Experience

We all know how online banking experiences are: boring, hard and ugly. Creating an experience that goes hand in hand with social media platforms and game consoles was the goal. Why would people they were back to the 80's once they decided to use their online banking account?

Starting from choosing a modern grid, fresh typography and emphasizing on the white space. It's a totally revamped online banking experience.

Knowledge Base for Doctors (Health care)

A knowledge base by definition is a content-heavy vehicle. Streamlining this to doctors was the challenge in this project. Right from the app branding, choosing the right colors, and fitting such deep data structure into such a small form factor was not a task you get to see everyday. All I can say, Pfizer and their doctors were very happy.
